

Logo Guidelines

Things we encourage

- Use the logo to link to the CDN Alliance
- Use the logo to advertise that your company has supported the CDN Alliance
- Use the logo in a blog post or news article about the CDN Alliance

Please don't do these things

- Use the logo for your companies icon/logo
- Create a modified version of the logo
- Integrate the logo into your logo
- Use any CDN Alliance artwork without permission
- Sell any CDN Alliance artwork without permission
- Change the colors, dimensions or add your own text/images

Please contact us

If you want to use artwork not included in this kit.

If you want to use these images in a video/mainstream media.

Please avoid naming your projects anything that implies the CDN Alliance's endorsement. This also applies to domain names.

Legal

In short, the CDN Alliance logos represent only the CDN Alliance and should not be used to represent your products.
